or

- (b) Indirect /Build-down Method

$$\text{RVC} = \frac{\text{FOB Price} - \text{Value of Non-Originating Materials, Parts or Produce}}{\text{FOB Price}} \times 100\%$$

2. For the purposes of calculating the RVC provided in paragraph 1:

- (e) Other Costs are the costs incurred in placing the good in the ship or other means of transport for export including, but not limited to, domestic transport costs, storage and warehousing, port handling, brokerage fees and service charges.

3. The value of goods under this Chapter shall be determined in accordance with the Customs Valuation Agreement. The Parties shall harmonise, to the extent possible, administrative procedures and practices in the assessment of value of goods for customs purposes.

Article 7

The certified true copy shall be made on the basis of the export documents in their possession and bear the words "CERTIFIED TRUE COPY". This copy shall bear the date of issuance of the original Certificate of Origin (Form AHK). The certified true copy of a Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be issued no longer than one year from the date of issuance of the original Certificate of Origin (Form AHK).

Rule 12

1. For the purposes of claiming preferential tariff treatment, the importer shall submit to the customs authority of the importing Party at the time of import, a declaration, a Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) including supporting documents (i.e. invoices and, when required, Bill of Lading or other related transportation documents) issued in the Area of the exporting Party and other documents as required in accordance with the internal laws and regulations of the importing Party.

2. In the case where a Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) is rejected by the customs authority of the importing Party, the subject Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be marked accordingly and the original Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be returned to the issuing authority within a reasonable period but not exceeding 60 days from the date of rejection. The issuing authority shall be duly notified of the grounds for the denial of preferential tariff treatment.

3. In the case where a Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) is rejected, as stated in paragraph 2, the importing Party shall accept and consider the clarification made by the issuing authority and assess again whether or not the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) can be accepted for the granting of the preferential tariff treatment. The clarifications shall be detailed and exhaustive in addressing the grounds of denial of preferential tariff treatment raised by the importing Party. If a clarification made by the issuing authority addresses the grounds for denial of preferential tariff treatment and satisfies the requirements of this Chapter, the importing Party shall accept the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) and grant preferential tariff treatment in accordance with its internal laws and regulations.

Rule 13

Validity Period of the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK)

1. The following time limit for the presentation of the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be observed:

- (a) the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance and shall be submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party within that period; and
- (b) where the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) is submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party after the expiration of the time limit for its submission, such Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall still be accepted where failure to observe the time limit for its submission results from force majeure or other valid causes beyond the control of the importer or the exporter.

2. In all cases, the customs authority of the importing Party may accept such Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) provided that the goods have been imported before the expiration of the time limit of the said Certificate of Origin (Form AHK).

Rule 14

Waiver of Certificate of Origin (Form AHK)

1. In the case of a consignment of goods originating in the exporting Party and not exceeding US$ 200.00 FOB, the presentation of Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) shall be waived and the use of simplified declaration by the exporter that the goods in question have originated in the exporting Party shall be accepted. Goods sent through the post not exceeding US$ 200.00 FOB shall also be similarly treated.

2. Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 1, a Party may elect not to require submission of a Certificate of Origin (Form AHK).

Rule 15

Treatment of Minor Discrepancies

1. Where the origin of the goods is not in doubt, the discovery of minor discrepancies, such as typographical errors in the statements made in the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) or made in other documents submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party for the purpose of carrying out the formalities for importing the goods, shall not ipso facto invalidate the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK), if it does in fact correspond to the goods submitted.
2. In the case where the exporting Party and the importing Party have different tariff classifications for a good subject to preferential tariff treatment, the goods shall be released at the most-favoured-nation rates or at the AHKFTA preferential rate, subject to the compliance of the applicable rules of origin, and no penalty or other charges shall be imposed in accordance with the internal laws and regulations of the importing Party. Once the classification differences have been resolved, the correct rate shall be applied and any overpaid duty shall be refunded if applicable, in accordance with the internal laws and regulations of the importing Party, as soon as the issues have been resolved.
3. For multiple items declared under the same Certificate of Origin (Form AHK), a problem encountered with one of the items listed shall not affect or delay the granting of preferential tariff treatment and customs clearance of the remaining items listed in the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK). Subparagraph (c) of Rule 17 (Retroactive Check) may be applied to the problematic items.

Rule 16

- (a) the request for retroactive check shall be accompanied with the Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) concerned and shall specify the reasons and any additional information suggesting that the particulars given on the said Certificate of Origin (Form AHK) may be inaccurate, unless the retroactive check is requested on a random basis;

- (c) the competent authority of the importing Party may suspend the provisions on preferential tariff treatment to a good that is the subject of a retroactive check for the duration of that action or any part thereof. However, in accordance with the internal laws and regulations of the importing Party, the competent authority of the importing Party may release the good to the importer subject to any administrative measures deemed necessary, provided that it is not held to be subject to import prohibition or restriction and there is no suspicion of fraud. In the event that a determination is made by the importing Party that the good qualifies as an originating good of the exporting Party, any suspended preferential tariff treatment shall be reinstated; and
- (d) the competent authority of the importing Party, after receipt of the results of the retroactive check from the competent authority of the exporting Party, shall determine whether or not the subject good is an originating good. The entire process of retroactive check including the process of notifying the competent authority of the exporting Party the result of the determination of whether or not the good is an originating good shall be completed within 180 days upon the receipt of the request by the competent authority of the exporting Party.

Rule 18

- (c) The competent authority of the exporting Party receiving the written request may postpone the proposed verification visit and notify the competent authority of the importing Party of such intention. Notwithstanding any postponement, any verification visit shall be carried out in accordance with the internal laws and regulations of the exporting Party within 60 days upon the date of receipt of the request, or for a longer period as the concerned Parties may agree. The arrangement of the verification visit shall be agreed by the competent authorities of the importing and exporting Parties;
- (d) The competent authority of the importing Party conducting the verification visit shall provide the exporter or producer whose goods are the subject of the verification visit, and the competent authority of the exporting Party, with a written determination of whether or not the subject goods qualified as originating goods;
- (e) Any suspended preferential tariff treatment shall be reinstated upon the written determination referred to in subparagraph (d) that the goods qualify as originating goods;
- (f) The exporter or producer shall be allowed 30 days, upon receipt of the written determination, to provide in writing additional information regarding the eligibility of the goods to the competent authority of the importing Party. If the goods are still found to be non-originating, the final written determination shall be communicated by the competent authority of the importing Party to the competent authority of the exporting Party within 30 days upon receipt of additional information from the exporter or producer; and
- (g) The verification visit process, including the actual visit and determination of whether the subject goods are originating or not, shall be carried out and its results communicated to the competent authority of the exporting Party within 180 days upon receipt of the written request pursuant to subparagraph (a) (i). While awaiting the results of the verification visit, subparagraph (c) of Rule 17 (Retroactive Check) on the suspension of preferential tariff treatment shall be applied.
