(2) This Act applies throughout Malaysia.

“Minister” means the Minister charged with the responsibility for finance;

Presumption of pool betting

3. (1) For the purposes of this Act, any bet shall be deemed to be made by way of pool betting unless it is a bet at fixed odds and in particular bets shall be held to be made by way of pool betting wherever a number of persons make bets—

- (a) on terms that the winnings of such of those persons as are winners shall be, or be a share of, or be determined by a reference to, the stake money paid or agreed to be paid by those persons, whether the bets are made by means of a totalisator or by filling up and returning coupons or other printed or written forms, or otherwise howsoever;
- (b) on terms that the winnings of such of those persons as are winners shall be, or shall include, an amount (not determined by reference to the stake money paid or agreed to be paid by those persons) which is divisible in any proportion among such of those persons as are winners; or
- (c) on the basis that the winners or their winnings shall, to any extent, be at the discretion of the licensee or the Board by his or its own operation or promotion of pool betting, or by his or its operation or promotion with an operator or promoter outside Malaysia as may be authorized in accordance with this Act.

(2) A bet is a bet at fixed odds within the meaning of this section only if each of the persons making it knows or can know at the time he makes it, the amount he will win, except in so far as that amount is to depend on the result of the event or events betted on, or on any event taking place or producing a result or on the numbers taking part in any such event or on the starting prices or totalisator odds for any such event or there being totalisator odds on any such event or on the time when his bet is received by any person with or through whom it is made.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2)—

- (a) the expression “starting prices”, in relation to any event, refers to the odds ruling at the scene of the event immediately before the start; and
- (b) the expression “totalisator odds”, in relation to football matches or such other prescribed events, refers to the odds made by means of a totalisator at the scene of the matches or events, as the case may be.

(4) Where payments are made for the chance of winning any money or money’s worth on terms under which payers have a power of selection which may directly or indirectly determine the winner, then, for the purposes of this Act those payments shall be treated as debts notwithstanding that the power is not exercised.

Pool betting duty

4. (1) A duty to be known as the pool betting duty shall be charged on every bet made by way of pool betting being a bet wherever made to the licensee or the Board in respect of pool betting.

(2) The pool betting duty shall be such amount as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(3) The pool betting duty shall be paid in the case of bets received by the licensee, the Board or agents.

(4) For the purpose of the pool betting duty, any payment which entitles a person to make a bet by way of pool betting shall, if he makes the bet, be treated as stake money on the bet.

(5) Subsection (4) shall apply to any payment entitling a person to take part in a transaction which is, on his part only, not a bet made by way of pool betting by reason of his not in fact making any stake as if the transaction were such a bet, and the transaction shall accordingly be treated as a bet for the purpose of the pool betting duty.

Licence
