PROOF OF DEBTS

Proof of debts

11. Every creditor must prove the creditor's debt, unless the Court in any particular winding up gives directions that any creditor or class of creditors is to be admitted without proof.

Mode of proof

12. A debt must be proved by filing with the liquidator by any of the following means a declaration verifying the debt:

- (a) sending through the post;
- (b) any other means agreed between the liquidator and the creditor of the VCC or sub-fund (as the case may be) filing the proof.

Verification of proof

13. A declaration proving a debt may be made by the creditor, or by any person authorised by or on behalf of the creditor.

Contents of proof

14.—(1) A declaration proving a debt must be in accordance with Form VCC(VWU)-11.

- (2) A proof of debt must state the following matters:
- (a) the creditor's name and address (including an electronic mail address, if available);
 - (b) the total amount of the creditor's claim as at the date of commencement of the winding up;
 - (c) whether the amount claimed includes interest within the meaning of section 222(4) of the IRDA and, if so —

 - (g) the name, address and authority of the person filing the proof, if that person is not the creditor.
- (3) The documents substantiating the claim specified in the proof of debt must accompany the proof of debt.

Costs of proof

15. A creditor must bear the costs of proving the creditor's debt unless the Court otherwise orders.

Discount

16.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a creditor proving the creditor's debt must deduct from the claim all trade and other discounts that would have been available to the VCC or sub-fund but for the liquidation of the VCC or sub-fund.

(2) The creditor is not required to deduct any discount (not exceeding 5% on the net amount of the creditor's claim) for immediate, early or cash settlement of the creditor's claim.

Periodical payments

17.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), in a case where any rent or other payment falls due on a day of any stated period, and the resolution to wind up a VCC or sub-fund is made on a day other than that day, any person entitled to the rent or payment may prove for a proportionate part of the rent or payment up to (and including) the date of the resolution, as if the rent or payment grew due from day to day.

(2) If, in the case of the winding up of a VCC, the liquidator or the VCC remains in occupation of premises demised to the VCC, nothing in these Regulations affects the right of the landlord of the premises to claim payment from the liquidator or VCC, of rent during the period of the liquidator's or VCC's occupation.

(3) If, in the case of the winding up of a sub-fund, the liquidator or the umbrella VCC of the sub-fund remains in occupation of premises demised to the umbrella VCC for the sub-fund, nothing in these Regulations affects the right of the landlord of the premises to claim payment from the liquidator or umbrella VCC, of the proportion of rent allocated to the sub-fund as liabilities of the sub-fund under section 29(3) of the VCC Act during the liquidator's or umbrella VCC's occupation.

Prescribed rate of interest under section 222 of IRDA

18. For the purposes of section 222(1) and (2)(b)(ii) of the IRDA, in an insolvent winding up of a VCC or sub-fund, the prescribed rate of interest allowed on a debt is the rate of interest on judgment debts provided for under the Rules of Court 2021 (G.N. No. S 914/2021) for the time being in force.

Proof for debt payable at a future time

19.—(1) A creditor may prove for a debt not payable on the date of the resolution to wind up the VCC or sub-fund, as if it were so payable, and may receive dividends rateably with the other creditors, deducting only from the dividend a rebate of interest at the rate of interest on judgment debts provided for under the Rules of Court 2021 for the time being in force.

(2) The rebate of interest is to be computed from the date of the declaration of a dividend to the date on which the debt would have become payable according to the terms on which it was contracted.

Proof of debt filed by licensed moneylenders

20.—(1) A moneylender licensed under the Moneylenders Act 2008 (called in this regulation a licensed moneylender) filing a proof of debt in respect of a loan made by the licensed moneylender as a licensed moneylender must, within 14 days after the date of filing of the proof of debt, file a copy of the following documents in respect of the loan:

- (a) the note of the contract for the loan, mentioned in section 33(1)(a) of that Act;
 - (b) the statement of account mentioned in section 34(1) of that Act, that was last supplied to the VCC, or umbrella VCC of the sub-fund, before the date of the resolution to wind up the VCC or sub-fund.
- (2) A reference in paragraph (1) to a licensed moneylender filing a proof of debt is a reference to a person who, at the time the loan mentioned in that paragraph is granted, is a licensed moneylender, whether or not the person continues to be so licensed at the time the proof of debt is filed.

Employee's wages

21.—(1) In a case where it appears that there are numerous claims for wages by persons employed by the VCC, or the umbrella VCC of the sub-fund for the purpose of that sub-fund, it is sufficient if one proof in accordance with Form VCC(VWU)-11 for all the claims is made by a person on behalf of those creditors.

(2) The proof must be accompanied by a schedule (which forms part of the proof) that sets out the following information relating to each of the creditors:

- (a) his or her name;
 - (b) his or her personal identification number or passport number;
 - (c) his or her address;
 - (d) the amount owed to him or her, and the amount of each component of wages or salary owed to him or her.
- (3) Any proof made in compliance with this regulation has the same effect as if separate proofs had been made by each of the persons employed by the VCC or umbrella VCC.

Production of bills of exchange and promissory notes

22. Where a creditor seeks to prove in respect of a bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument or security on which the VCC or sub-fund is liable, the bill of exchange, promissory note, instrument or security must, subject to any order of the Court made to the contrary, be produced to the liquidator and be marked by the liquidator before the proof may be admitted either for voting or for any purpose.

PART 4ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF PROOFS*Notice to creditors to prove

23.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the IRDA, and unless the Court otherwise orders, the liquidator may from time to time fix a date (that must be at least 14 days after the date of the notice mentioned in paragraph (2)) on or before which the creditors of the VCC or sub-fund are to prove their debts or claims, or be excluded from the benefit of any distribution made before the debts are proved.

(2) The liquidator must give notice of the date mentioned in paragraph (1) —

- (a) by advertisement made in Form VCC(VWU)-12 in the Gazette and in at least one English local daily newspaper; and
- (b) in writing in accordance with Form VCC(VWU)-13 —
 - (i) to every creditor who, to the liquidator's knowledge, claims to be a creditor of the VCC or sub-fund and whose claim has not been admitted; and
 - (ii) to every person mentioned in the statement of affairs as a creditor who has not proved the person's debt.

Examination of proof

24.—(1) The liquidator must examine every proof of debt filed with the liquidator and the grounds of the debt, and must in writing admit or reject the proof in whole or in part, or require further evidence in support of the proof.

(2) If the liquidator rejects (whether in whole or in part) a proof filed by a creditor, the liquidator must state in writing in accordance with Form VCC(VWU)-14 to the creditor the grounds of the rejection.

Oaths

25. For the purpose of any of the liquidator's duties in relation to proofs of debt, the liquidator may administer oaths and take affidavits.

Creditor's proof that has been admitted

26. Where a creditor's proof has been admitted (whether in whole or in part), the notice of dividend mentioned in regulation 39(6) is sufficient notification to the creditor of the admission.

(2) The notice of intention to declare a dividend must specify the latest date by which a proof must be filed, being a date at least 14 days after the date of the notice.

(3) The liquidator must, within 14 days after the latest date for filing a proof of debt mentioned in the notice of intention to declare a dividend, in writing either admit or reject wholly or in part, every

- (b) the liquidator must make provision for the dividend payable upon the proof and the probable costs of the appeal in the event of the proof being admitted.

(5) If no appeal has been commenced within the time mentioned in paragraph (4)(a), the liquidator must exclude the proof that has been rejected from participation in the dividend.

(8) The same procedure is to be followed in relation to a fresh notice of the liquidator's intention to declare a dividend mentioned in paragraph (7), except that fresh notice need not be given to any creditor mentioned in the statement of affairs who has not proved the creditor's debt.

(9) A person to whom a dividend is payable may lodge with the liquidator a document in Form VCC(VWU)-19 to state that the dividend is to be paid to some other person specified in the document.

(10) A document lodged under paragraph (9) is sufficient authority for the liquidator to pay the dividend to the person specified in the document.
