Definitions

3. In these Regulations —

“additional sum”, in relation to any member, means the balance or any part of the balance of the sum standing to the credit of a member which a member is entitled to withdraw under section 15(2)(a), (3) or (4) of the Act after the member’s retirement sum has been set aside;

“approved annuity” means any annuity from an insurer approved by the Board under regulation 4;

“approved bank” means any bank approved by the Board under regulation 4;

“bank” has the meaning given by the Banking Act 1970;

“insurer” means any person registered under the Insurance Act 1966 to carry on insurance business in Singapore;

“subsistence amount” means, in relation to a member who is entitled to withdraw or be paid a monthly income under regulation 12 of the Central Provident Fund (Retirement Sum Scheme) Regulations 1988, regulation 8A of the Central Provident Fund (Revised Retirement Sum Scheme) Regulations 1995, regulation 8A of the Central Provident Fund (New Retirement Sum Scheme) Regulations 2004 or regulation 10C of the Central Provident Fund (Retirement Sum Topping-Up Scheme) Regulations 1995 on a date specified in the first column of the Schedule, the amount set out in the second column of the Schedule against the specified date.

Approved bank or approved annuity

4.—(1) The Board may, from time to time —

- (a) approve any bank with whom a member may deposit the additional sum; and
- (b) approve any annuity or class of annuities from any insurer which a member may purchase with the additional sum.

(2) Any bank who wishes to be approved, or an insurer who wishes any annuity or class of annuities issued by it to be approved, under paragraph (1) may apply to the Board in such form and manner as the Board may determine.

(3) The Board may, in granting any approval under paragraph (1), impose such conditions on the bank or relating to the annuity or class of annuities (as the case may be) as the Board considers appropriate.

(4) The Board may cancel any approval under paragraph (1) if the approved bank breaches or the approved annuity or class of annuities fails to conform with any of the conditions imposed under paragraph (3).

Deposit with approved bank

5.—(1) Any member who wishes to deposit the additional sum with an approved bank or banks may apply to the Board in such form and manner as the Board may determine.

(2) Any application for approval under paragraph (1) must be made before 1 January 2014 and must contain such information and particulars as the Board may require.

(3) If the Board is satisfied that the member has opened an account with an approved bank or banks and that the account is to be used solely for the purpose of depositing the additional sum, the Board must (before 1 January 2014) transfer the member's additional sum to his or her account in the bank or banks.

(4) A member is entitled at any one time to deposit the additional sum in more than one account with any approved bank.

Purchase of approved annuity

6.—(1) Any member who wishes to purchase one or more approved annuities with the additional sum may apply to the Board in such form and manner as the Board may determine.

(2) Any application for approval under paragraph (1) must be made before 1 January 2014 and must contain such information and particulars as the Board may require.

(3) If the Board is satisfied that the annuity or annuities to be purchased by the member have been approved by the Board under regulation 4, the Board must (before 1 January 2014) pay the insurer issuing the approved annuity or annuities for the purchase from the member's additional sum.

Withdrawal from approved bank

7. A member who has deposited the additional sum in any account with an approved bank and who attains the retirement age of 60 or 62 years (as the case may be) is entitled to withdraw from the additional sum deposited in each account with the approved bank (until the additional sum is exhausted or the member's death, whichever is the earlier) —

(a) if the member has attained 55 years of age before 1 July 2004, the higher of —

(i) the sum calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{additional sum deposited in} \\ \text{account with approved bank}}{$30,000} \times $230; \text{ or}$$

(ii) the subsistence amount; or

(b) if the member has attained 55 years of age on or after 1 July 2004, a monthly payout as determined by the Board.

Withdrawal from approved annuity

8. A member who has purchased any approved annuity with the additional sum and who attains the retirement age of 60 or 62 years (as the case may be) is entitled to be paid from each approved annuity (until the moneys payable under the annuity are exhausted or the member's death, whichever is the earlier) —

(a) if the member has attained 55 years of age before 1 July 2004, a minimum monthly sum not below the subsistence amount; or

- (b) if the member has attained 55 years of age on or after 1 July 2004, a monthly payout as specified in the annuity.

Termination of account with approved bank or surrender of approved annuity

9.—(1) Where a member terminates the account with an approved bank in which he or she has deposited the additional sum, the member is entitled to withdraw all the moneys in that account.

(2) Where a member surrenders any approved annuity, the member is entitled to be paid from the insurer issuing the approved annuity an amount representing the surrender value of the approved annuity.

Death of member

10. Where a member —

- (a) who has deposited the additional sum in one or more approved banks; or
- (b) who has purchased an approved annuity with the additional sum,

dies, the additional sum or any balance thereof or the amount representing the residual value of the approved annuity purchased with the additional sum (as the case may be) must be disposed of in accordance with the law for the time being in force.

Deemed date of birth

11.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations, where a member's date of birth cannot be ascertained or is doubtful, the member's date of birth is taken to be 1 January of the year in which the member was born.

(2) Despite section 2(1A)(b) of the Act, for the purposes of regulations 7 and 8, a member who is born on 29 February is deemed to attain 62 years of age on 28 February of the year in which the member attains that age.

Breach of Regulations

12. If a member fails to comply with any of the provisions of these Regulations or, if for any purpose connected with these Regulations, makes a false representation or furnishes any false information, the Board may, as the case may be —

- (a) require the member to terminate the bank account in which any additional sum was deposited; or
- (b) require the member to surrender the approved annuity purchased with the additional sum, whereupon the additional sum or the balance thereof or the money representing the surrender value of the approved annuity must be paid to the member in accordance with regulation 9.
