In exercise of the powers conferred by section 61 of the Social Residential Homes Act 2025, the Minister for Social and Family Development makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations are the Social Residential Homes (Appeals) Regulations 2026 and come into operation on 1 July 2026.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations —

“appealable decision” has the meaning given by section 48 of the Act;

“appellant” has the meaning given by section 48 of the Act;

“authorised representative”, in relation to any appellant, means a person authorised by the appellant to represent the appellant in an appeal;

“Minister” includes a person designated under section 50(1) of the Act.

Manner of making appeal

3. In addition to section 49(2) of the Act, the notice of appeal —

(a) must state —

- (i) the name and address of the appellant;
- (ii) the name and address of each authorised representative of the appellant, if any; and
- (iii) an address in Singapore, and an email address (if any), for the service of documents;

(b) must be accompanied by a copy of the appealable decision; and

(c) must be signed and dated by —

- (i) the appellant; or
- (ii) each authorised representative of the appellant, on the appellant's behalf, if the details provided in paragraph (a)(ii) relate to one or more authorised representatives of the appellant.

Prescribed period for making appeal

4. For the purposes of section 49(2)(c) of the Act, the prescribed period is 14 days after the date the appealable decision appealed against is given to the appellant.

Minister may request for documents or information

5. The Minister may, by written notice, require the appellant to provide, within the period specified in the notice, any document or information to enable the Minister to determine the appeal.

Withdrawal of appeal

6. An appellant may, at any time before the Minister makes his or her decision on the appellant's appeal, withdraw the appeal by serving on the Minister a written notice to withdraw the appeal.

Made on 18 June 2026.
